From Saturday May 19. to Tuesday May 22. 1739.

Conſtantinople, March 12.

ON the 10th the Grand Vizier was ſent for to the Seraglio, where he was deprived of the Seals, and confined till this Morning, when he was put on board a Galley which is departed with him for Rhodes, where he is to remain a Priſoner in the Caſtle. He has been according to Cuſtom ſtripped of every thing, and before his Departure received a ſcanty Proviſion of Cloaths and ready Money; there is an uſual ſmall Allowance for Perſons of his Rank in theſe unhappy Circumſtances. The Seal was ſent the Evening of the late Vizier's Depoſition by the Sultan's Salictar to Euliah Mehmet Paſha, who has for ſome time been Governour of Widdin, and commanded the laſt Campaign at the Siege of Orſova, and in one or two of the Actions in the Field. The Caimacan of this City is to be continued in the ſame Employment this Year, he having found Means to diſperſe the Rebels in Aſia, and is expected here in three or four Days.

Bologna, May 9. The Great Dutcheſs of Tuſcany, on her Paſſage through this City, agreeably to the Inſtructions from the Pope, was treated and complimented as Archdutcheſs of Auſtria. The Vice-Legate received her Royal Highneſs at the Confines of Tuſcany, and attended her to thoſe of the Duke of Modena. At her Entrance into this City ſhe was ſaluted by the Guns of the Caſtle, and attended by a Detachment of the Pope's Light Horſe-Guards; and in the Evening her Highneſs was entertain'd with a Ball at the Palace of Count Aldovrandi, where ſhe lodg'd. The Great Duke and Prince Charles were complimented without the Gates of the City by the Vice-Legate, and ſaluted by the Guns of the Caſtle. On the 30th paſt their Royal Highneſſes were moſt magnificently entertain'd by the Duke of Modena at Reggio, and on the 1ſt Inſtant arrived at Parma, where they were complimented by the Dutcheſs Dowager Dorotea, and M. Fracen the Governour of Milan. They were ſaluted by the Guns of the Caſtle; and after they had changed Horſes, proceeded to Firenzola, where they lodg'd that Night in the Palace of Count Bertagnini. The Great Duke and Prince Charles went to ſee the Camp near Parma, where the famous Battle was fought on the 24th of June 1734, between the Imperialiſts and the Allies. On the 2d their Royal Highneſſes ſeparated, the Great Duke and Prince Charles proceeded for Aleſſandria della Paglia and Turin, and the Great Dutcheſs for Milan, where they were to meet again; and to depart thence on the 8th for Swiſſerland, there to meet the Dutcheſs Dowager of Lorrain.

Berlin, May 23, N. S. On Tueſday Evening the King of Pruſſia removed from Potſdam to this Town. On the Thurſday Morning following the Prince Royal, at the Head of his Regiment, arrived alſo here from Rupin; as did from their reſpective Quarters the four other Regiments which come hither every Year in this Seaſon: And this Day being fixed for the general Review, all the Foot now here, conſiſting of 20 Battallions, which make 15,000 Men, was drawn up in one Line, at the uſual Place, about three Engliſh Miles from hence: But as they did not perform to his Pruſſian Majeſty's Satisfaction, they were order'd, after having fired but twice by Plâttoons, to march back into the Town; and next Monday they are to paſs a ſecond Time in Review before his Pruſſian Majeſty.

Hambourg, May 26. Advice is juſt come, that the Duke of Holſtein is dangerouſly ill, and even thought to be paſt all Hopes of Recovery.
